TOWN AND COUNTRY.

Another Mysterious Chinese Fight.

Last Sunday evening, about eight o'clock, Wee Kong and Ah Chuck, both inmates of a Chinese wash house, on Plaza near the corner of Virginia street became engaged in a wordy tangle over the Chinese limitation bill. Ah Chuck expressed himself as against the bill in every shape or manner as he had a whole tribe of relatives and friends whom he could not now bring over to this glorious country. Wee Kong was in favor of the bill because it would, by checking the influx of any more Chinese, cause the wages of those already here to appreciate in a few months. This fired Ah Chuck who replied to Wee Kong's logic that the latter was nothing more or less than an Irish Chinaman in disguise. With a cry of "Milla Murther" Wee Kong leaped for his Chinese argument and a lively fight ensued. After a short period of fighting fists became monotonous and the Chinese code duello was resorted to, consisting of an indiscriminate slashing at each other with knives. As a result Wee Kong the Miesian Chinaman succeeded in carving the hand and elbow of Ah Chuck, the Simon Pure Mongolian in the neatest manner. Officer Avery tried to investigate the affair yesterday morning, but was met by a solid wall of Chinese ignorance—for no one knew of the scrape and the wounded man could not be found.

Amusement.

A wonderful performance will be given to-morrow (Thursday) evening at the Nevada Theater, by the Miller Brothers, who are probably the most powerful spiritual mediums now before the public. They appeared at Ogden a few evenings ago, and the Pilot made the following mention of them:

The Miller Brothers gave a most remarkable series of spirit manifestations last night before an audience that filled every available inch of room in Union Opera House. Several were turned away, unable even to find standing-room, the entrance as well as the auditorium being packed with people anxious to see the wonderful things announced, and to say that every one present went away satisfied is no exaggeration. Judging from the expressions the audience felt agreeably disappointed and doubly repaid for the 25 cents and time expended. Among the most mysterious and strange manifestations were perhaps those of giving the gentlemen selected by the audience messages from their departed friends, one of the gentlemen recognizing the signature of his father, departed many years ago. There were also materialization of spirit forms and wonderful experiments in table tilting, a large table rising in the air while Mr. Miller simply touched it with one hand on top. Other tests, too numerous and mysterious for description, were given, making altogether the most mind-puzzling exhibition ever given in this city.

Highly Delighted Visitors.

Phil Depaugh, of the Wine House, and Ben Larrabee, messenger for Wells, Fargo & Co., took a quiet drive to the insane Asylum last Sunday evening, and were entertained like royal guests for nearly two hours. As a result old Phil had only one string to his banjo all day yesterday, and that was the Asylum. There were besides last Sunday a score or so of other visitors, and Dr. Dawson succeeded in pleasing each one of them and impressing them with the excellence of his management, of which every one in Reno is justly proud. Old Phil speaks all day long on the subject in the most flattering terms, and he is no scrub of a talker. As he was confined at one time in an insane asylum for imagining himself the King of Italy, he ought to be posted.

A Long Camp-Out for a Woman.

Mrs. Duncan, wife of B. B. Duncan, of Carson, arrived in Reno last Sunday evening and after staying over at the Arcade Hotel that night left for Carson Monday morning. Mrs. Duncan has been roughing it with her husband in a camping out tour extending over four months. He started up to Helena, Montana, where he has some contracts to fulfill and she accompanied him camping out, shooting, hunting and fishing and leading a pioneer life generally. She is quite happy at reaching home once more, though Mr. Duncan will not return for several weeks to come owing to unfulfilled contracts.

Mrs. Wm. Webster and Wm. Webster, Jr., departed for the lake last evening, and Mrs. Webster will occupy at least three weeks in a genuine pleasure tour. William will return in a week for the purpose of going out camping in another direction.

Justice Roger Power, of Washoe City, is in town. The Judge will leave for the East in a few days, and intends to remain there, where the JOURNAL hopes he will live to be as old as Methuselah.

W. N. Knox has been appointed agent for the San Insurance Co., of California, and yesterday wrote risks, the premiums on which amounted to $212.50.

The Mate of the Gatherer.

Joseph Watts, the mate of the ship Gatherer, who achieved in San Francisco from several criminal trials the reputation of being a monster of a brute to his seamen on the high seas, passed through Reno Monday on his way to San Francisco in charge of Deputy United States Marshal Ackerman. It will be remembered that Watts escaped to England whence he was extradited to this country. Marshal Ackerman going to New York to take him in charge. A JOURNAL reporter interviewed Marshal Ackerman and Mr. Watts on the train, but had the opportunity for only a few moments talk. The prisoner is a slight looking young man of about twenty-five or twenty-eight years of age, with a bushy mustache and rather hard expression of countenance. He was taciturn in mood and would have nothing to say though Deputy Ackerman gave the reporter full permission to interrogate him. He was entirely free from shackles and accompanied by the Marshal took supper at the Depot Hotel. From all accounts he will have a tough time over his trial at the Bay.

A Dangerous Fall.

A young man named Wm. McNeise, son-in-law of Mr. Painter, of the firm of Painter and Hall, while at work Monday afternoon shingling the roof of J. O'Neil's new building in the Western Addition, raised himself suddenly from his stooping position on the roof and fell backward, falling from the roof clear to the ground, a distance of 15 feet. About midway he struck the bracket of a scaffold breaking it in two. Mr. Updike, the painter, who was at work close by, immediately went to his aid and carried him to Mrs. Northrup's residence near at hand. Every attention was given him yet he remained unconscious for nearly an hour. Owing to the dangerous manner of his fall, his head being doubled on his breast, he had a very narrow escape from instant death.

For Commissioner.

J. J. Quinn announces himself a candidate for County Commissioner (Long Term), subject to the decision of the Democratic County Convention. Mr. Quinn has shown that he can manage his own business successfully, and the man who can do that is almost certain to make a good Commissioner, and if Mr. Quinn should be nominated and elected, there is no reason to doubt that he would work for the people as well as he has for himself.

For Auditor.

T. F. Laycock announces himself a candidate for County Auditor, subject to the decision of the Republican County Convention. Mr. Laycock was the Republican nominee at the last election, and did well under the circumstances. He is in every respect worthy of good treatment from his party and the people, and is as strong a man for the place as the Republicans can name.

For Commissioner.

D. H. Lodge announces himself a candidate for County Commissioner (Long Term), subject to the decision of the Democratic County Convention. Mr. Lodge was elected for the short term at the last election, and in the line of promotion is entitled to the long term nomination.

STATE FAIR, 1882.

The Ninth Annual Fair for 1882 will commence on Monday, October 2d, and continue six days. It promises to excel in attractions and usefulness all former Fairs.

• LOCATION OF GROUNDS.

The Society has leased and fitted up eighty-five acres of ground, located on the line of the Virginia & Truckee Railroad, and the Reno and Virginia Stage Road, one and one-half miles from the business centre of Reno.

Their track is a one-mile track, the best one in the State, and one of the best in the United States. The stretches are a quarter of a mile each, and the curves a quarter of a mile each; and while the ground on which the track is located is generally level, the home stretch descends gently to the Judges' Stand. The curves are elevated on the outside, and the soil is of such a character that it is confidently believed that, with use, our track will equal the best in the United States.

The Trials of Speed will take place each afternoon, on the Track, between 1 and 6 o'clock p. m.

RAILROAD ARRANGEMENTS.

The Central Pacific and Virginia & Truckee Railroad Companies will transport all animals exhibited at the Fair, FREE OF CHARGE. Freight being paid on them to the Fair will be returned upon reshipment by the same owner, and exhibition of certificate of Secretary that the same has been exhibited.

The Central Pacific Railroad Company will transport all animals and articles to be exhibited from California upon payment of freight to the Fair and will return the same free, upon exhibition of certificate of Secretary that they have been on exhibition.

OVER $10,000

Appropriated in Premiums

And a long list of Special Premiums for all worthy articles exhibited, not mentioned in the schedule.

The Society will give, in addition to the Premiums named, a Gold Medal to the most meritorious exhibition in each department.

The Society's Silver Medal shall be the award of HIGHEST MERIT.

All premiums over $5 may, in the discretion of the Board of Trustees, be paid in the Society's Silver Plate manufactured expressly for the purpose.

RULES FOR ARENA.

- 1.—Superintendents of departments are ex-officio Chairmen of their respective committees, but shall not be entitled to a vote.
- 2.—Each premium shall be voted separately; the votes to be by ballot; and in case of a tie, another committee man shall be called in and his vote shall be confined to the animals tied and be final. A majority of the votes cast is required to award the premium.
- 3.—Committees are required to pass not only on the merits of animals in competition, but also on their age and soundness.
- 4.—The age of animals shall be computed from the first day of January of the year in which they are foaled.
- 5.—Diseased animals shall not be awarded a premium.
- 6.—A premium shall not be awarded if the animal or articles be deemed not worthy, though there be no competition.
- 7.—In judging of blooded stock, regard will be had to the purity of blood established by pedigree, size, form, action, and general characteristics of the various breeds, in making proper allowances for age, feeding and other circumstances.
- 8.—At the time of making an entry of thoroughbred stock of any kind, the party applying will be required to furnish the Secretary with authentic pedigrees, which will be passed upon by competent committees, and placed in the hands of the committee to award the premiums.
- 9.—No one will be allowed to act as judge while he is an exhibitor, or who is related to an exhibitor in the group or class he is judging.

RULES

Governing the Conduct of Jockeys and Grooms

First.—Any jockey or groom interfering with the rights of another jockey or groom, or other jockey's or groom's horse, saddle, bridle, sulky, or other property, or property in charge of another jockey or groom, although not the owner, shall thereby lose his standing, and shall be excluded from the privileges of the ground and premises of the Association until restored to good standing by a unanimous vote of the Board of Trustees.

Second.—Any owner of a horse on exhibition, or in competition, who shall interfere with the property of another exhibitor or competitor, either directly or indirectly, thereby loses his standing, and shall be excluded from the privileges of the grounds and premises of the Association, until reparation has been made to the satisfaction of the party injured and the Board of Trustees, and he had been restored to good standing by a unanimous vote of the Board of Trustees.

Third.—"Doping" or "chucking" a horse or other animal shall forfeit for life all privileges of the Society's grounds and premises.

Fourth.—No person shall be allowed to ride, drive, speed, or exercise an animal to the right around the speed ring, but all animals ridden, driven, or exercised or speeded on the track must be in the same direction, to-wit: to the left, keeping the Judge's stand on their left, or in the direction in which speed contests are had during the progress of a race.

Fair Grounds.

Owners of horses, entered or to be entered for speed contests, desiring stable accommodations on the grounds, will apply to the Secretary.

ARRANGEMENT.

DEPARTMENTS—GROUPS—CLASSES.

First Department, ... Live Stock
Second Department, ... Agricultural Products
Third Department, ... Horticultural Products
Fourth Department, ... Manufactures and Mechanics
Fifth Department, ... Mining, Minerals and Metals

Regulations.

Every article or animal entered for competition shall be under the control of the Board of Trustees, but the Society will in no case be responsible for any loss or damage that may occur.

Exhibitors.

The exhibitor may sell at his stand any articles displayed (except eatables, drinkables, cigars and tobacco), agreeing only to replace it with a similar article the following day.

Parties from a distance may ship their goods to the Secretary, who will have them transported to the Fair Grounds and returned at the close of the Exhibition in the original packing box, after having been taken care of and displayed to the best advantage by the officers of the Society.

In all cases the freight must be prepaid to Reno.

All articles so shipped must be in Reno on or before September 30th. Nothing but meritorious articles will be received or exhibited.

No Trustee of the Society will be allowed to compete for a premium in the department over which he is Superintendent. If it is ascertained that any exhibitor has, in an ungentlemanly and public manner, taken exceptions to the judgment of an awarding committee, the Board of Trustees shall expel and person so offending from competing for a premium, or exhibiting on the grounds of the Society, until he shall have made proper apology, and been reinstated by a vote of the majority of the whole Board of Trustees.

If it be ascertained that any exhibitor has made, or caused to be made, any false statement in regard to any animal or article exhibited, or if any exhibitor shall attempt to interfere with the Judges in the performance of their duties, by letter, circular, or otherwise, he shall be excluded from competition or exhibiting on the grounds or premises of the Society.

An exhibitor file with the Superintendent an affidavit made before the Secretary, that the Judges of an awarding committee have been interfered with in the performance of their duty, by a false statement, letter, circular, or otherwise, or that one of the members of an awarding committee is related to the successful competitor, or has been directly or indirectly interested in the award of a premium in the class in which he acted as a committeeman, it shall be the duty of said Superintendent to withhold the premium until all the facts have been submitted to the Committee on Appeals.

After the Fair no articles will be returned except upon presentation of the card received by the exhibitor from the Superintendent of their respective department, with the exhibitor's name upon it. If that card should be lost, notice should be given to the Superintendent.

of the department as soon as possible, lest the article should be delivered to the finder.

Motive power will be furnished free for all machinery.

No invention or products of convict labor will be received for exhibition or competition.

The Society will not be responsible for the omission to exhibit any article or animal not entered strictly in accordance with its rule.

No article or animal entered for premiums can be removed or taken away before the close of the Exhibition, without special permission. No premium will be paid on articles or animals removed in violation of this rule.

All articles or animals entered for exhibition must have cards, with the numbers as entered by the Entry Clerk; and exhibitors in all cases must obtain their cards previous to placing their articles or animals on exhibition.

No animal can compete in more than one class, unless the exception is made in the schedule.

In those classes where competition for premiums is limited to Nevada, that part of California that is east of the Sierra Nevada, and Grand and Lake Counties, Oregon, will be allowed to compete.

Entries.

No one will be allowed to see the entries until after the awards are made.

Entries in any department of class can be made before the Fair, by application or letter to the Secretary. During the Fair, only Live Stock will be received at the office of the Secretary, on the Fair grounds.

On Thursday, Friday and Saturday previous to the opening of the Fair, the Superintendents will be on the ground to receive and arrange articles in their respective departments. All articles must be on the ground on Saturday, September 30th, before the opening of the Fair.

Awarding Committees.

No one will be allowed to act as Judge in the class where he exhibits, or if he is related to an exhibitor in said class.

No premium shall be awarded when the article is unworthy, though there be no competition.

Awarding Committees will only award premiums to articles regularly entered in their respective classes; but they are requested to examine all articles entered in the Miscellaneous Class, and recommend those deemed meritorious for mention in the coming report or for special premiums.

The Awarding Committee will be selected from the various sections of the country with great care, but will not be made public until the Premiums are awarded.

Invited Guests.

All officers of Agricultural Associations are respectfully invited to attend without further notice—and they will please forward a list of their officers at least ten days before the Fair.

For Diseases of the Throat and Lungs, such as Coughs, Colds, Whooping Cough, Bronchitis, Asthma,

AND CONSUMPTION.

The few compound-tions which have won the confidence of mankind and become household words, but many nations, must have extraordinary virtues. Perhaps no one ever secured so wide a reputation or maintained it so long as AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL. It has been known to the public about forty years, that have won for it a confidence in its virtues, never equalled by any other medicine. It makes the most effectual cures of Coughs, Colds, Consumption, that can be made by medical skill. Indeed, the CHERRY PECTORAL has really robbed these dangerous diseases of their terrors to a great extent, and given a feeling of immunity from their fatal effects, that is well founded if the remedy be taken in season. Every family should have it in their closet for the ready and prompt relief of its members. Sick, suffering, and even life is saved by this timely protection. The prudent should not neglect it, and the wise will not keep it for the protection it affords by its timely use in sudden attacks.
